INCLUDE alert service

Stay tuned for new publications on Inclusive Development!

- The ASC Library offers the possibility to sign up for different types of alerts based on ASC Leiden-related resources, covering the ASC library catalogue, ASC online publications and other scientific Africa-related publications from the Connecting-Africa database.
- Alerts include (free) electronic documents, journal articles, books, films and sound.
- Alerts can be received by email or RSS.
- The ASC alert service is free of charge

Interested in new titles on Kenya, female entrepreneurs in Ghana, Islam in Nigeria or any other Africa-related country or subject? Subscribe to the ASC alert service

The ASC Library recently developed two specific alerts on Inclusive Development for INCLUDE:

Social Protection and Productive Employment.

How to subscribe

RECEIVING ALERTS VIA EMAIL

- 1) Click on social protection or productive employment. A request form pops up.
- 2) Fill in your email address and the verification code displayed on the request form and click on the button 'Complete Subscription Request'.
- 3) Check your inbox for a verification message from FeedBurner Email Subscriptions. If you do not receive this message, check your junk mail/spam.
- 4) Click on the link listed in this message to activate your subscription.
Once your subscription has been activated you will receive email notifications when new titles become available that match your choice.

RECEIVING ALERTS VIA RSS

- 1) Click on the RSS button next to social protection or productive employment. The alert service creates an RSS-feed. Add the feed to a reader (e.g. Feedly), your browser or Microsoft Outlook in order to be notified when new titles become available that match your choice.
