

National Policy Dialogue on Youth employment challenge in Ghana: what do the policy Makers and politicians have to say?

September 28, 2016

Alisa Hotel, Accra

PROGRAM

8:30 - 09:30	Registration
9:30-9:35	Introduction Ms. Freda Yawson
09:35 - 09:40	Welcome and opening Remarks Dr. Yaw Ansu, Chief Economist (ACET).
09: 40 - 10:05	Plenary Session 1- Presentation: Report on the policy issues that emerged from the 1 st National Dialogue on July 13, 2016. Chair: Professor. Joe Amoako-Tuffour, Director of Research, ACET Presenter: Dr. William Baah-Boateng, Senior Research Fellow, ACET
10:05 – 10:20	Coffee break
10:20 - 12:50	Plenary Session 2: Political Parties Representative Round Table discussion and Q & A: Solving the Youth Employment Challenges in Ghana: what do the politicians have to say

The climax of the dialogue will be the political parties' roundtable discussion in which all invited political parties will be offered at most 10 minutes to state the parties' position on how it would tackle the unemployment and joblessness among the youth if it were given the mandate by the people of Ghana to govern from 7th

January 2017. In this session, representatives of the various political parties contesting the 2016 general elections will be given the opportunity to demonstrate their capacity, capability and readiness to address youth employment challenges.

- Moderator: Dr. William Baah-Boateng, Senior Research Fellow, ACET

12:50 - 1:00

Closing remarks and way forward

Mrs. Dede Amanor-Wilks, Acting Director of Communications, ACET

1:00 - 2:00

Lunch at Alisa Hotel